

General Information:

Pursuant to Department of Transportation (DOT) guidance, Frontier or Midwest requires a passenger traveling with a therapeutic / emotional support animal to obtain a written statement from his/her mental health care professional (physician or psychologist) addressing the questions listed below in Section II.

- This form is valid for one year from the date of physician or psychologist's signature.
- An animal health certificate is not required.
- Service animals must be properly harnessed for the duration of the flights. A proper harness is considered a collar and

Instructions:

Physician: Please complete this form or provide the passenger with a signed written statement containing the information in this form on the clinic's letterhead.

Passenger: Please retain the original form or your doctor's statement in your possession when traveling, and be prepared to present it to airline representatives.

Customer Service Agent: Ensure this form is complete or the written statement addresses the questions below and return it to the passenger.

"A" Flight Attendant: Review this form is complete or the written statement addresses the questions below and inform the pilot-in-command.

Section I - Passenger Information

Name:	Date:
-------	-------

Section II - Physician Statement (To be completed by Physician)

1. Does the passenger have a mental health related disability?

YES NO

2. Is it necessary for passenger's mental health treatment or assistance the animal accompany the passenger?

YES NO

3. What type of animal provides Therapeutic / Emotional Support for this passenger?

Physician Name:	Telephone Number:
-----------------	-------------------

Physician Signature:	Date:
----------------------	-------